

10th July 2023

Dear Parents & Carers.

New School Start Time & INSET Day

This year, we have been opening the gates at 8:20am with most of the children going straight to class by 8:30. Officially our start time has been 8:45 am.

This is a result of the government expectation that all schools will deliver a school week of at least 32.5 hours by September 2023. We have been practicing as our official hours are currently 31 hours.

To meet those 32.5 hours, we will officially be starting school at 8:30 am from September 2023.

Registration will remain open until 8:45 am for the Autumn Term to allow parents and carers to adjust to this official change although like I said, most children have been coming in at 8:30 am this year.

Please remember that we have an INSET day across both schools on Monday the 4th of September 2023.

The children are due back at 8:30 am on Tuesday 5th September 2023.
